EDITORIALS WOOD "FEUDS"

The first sigh of Arkansas winter is becoming evident throughout the project, judging from the number of colds being suffered by the residents. Taking last winter as a criteria for what may happen these coming icy days, the question of lumberjacking and proper wood distribution becomes a problem of primordial importance.

Nearly all of the people who have lived here during last Docember, January and February will racall with dread the months when icy fingers, sniffles and wood 'fouds' were descriptive of the conditions existing hero. A repetition of such a nature is again possible this winter if precautions are not taken.

We find that the departure of many of our young men caused a sharp drop in the number of possible lumberjacks. Although we have a number of older mon working in the forests at the present time, a proportionate number of younger men will be needed to haul the logs from the reclamation areas to the individual blocks. The major problem thus becomes how can tho needed labor be obtained in order that we may conserve during the next few weeks enough ruel to last through the days when trees can be cut only periodically.

The only logical solution that has been introduced who also supplied the Dento date is that younger men who are engaged in work that can be handled by women or older men should transfer from their jobs and aid the center in building up a supply of fuel for the winter.

Men between the ages of twenty and thirty five are urgently needed for this work. Unless the needs are filled, the coming winter will be anothor hypothetical 'retreat from Moscow'. Onco again, tho center will have to depend on voluntary wood crows and again wo will have month-long squabbles on which blocks should get their wood first. The winter in Rohwer will mean It adds, also, another ill feelings, frozen fingers and work on Sundays.

FIREMEN WANTE

The National Fire Prevention week officially opens Plans tomorrow and will continue until next Saturday. for improving the fire prevention program here in Rohwer include the cleaning up of accumulated trash from the north side of the project area. Other preventive measures will be taken to insure this WRA center as well as all others a guarantee that fire loss in property will again be well below the national average for the coming year.

Serving as a possible threat to the fine record that Rohwer has earned in this respect, the lowest fire loss per capita among any of the WRA projects, is the shortage of personnel in the Rohwer Fire department. Men who were trained for long hours in the tedious art of understanding modern fire-fighting techniques have left the center in sizable number through relocation and the present staff is being overworked to insure the center of adequate fire protection.

The Fire department is the backbone of preventive fire control. Upon this singular organization, the responsibility of checking the spread of fires that may play havoc on the inflammable WRA buildings is laid. The shortage of firemen must be filled on a compulsory block by block basis if voluntary recruits are not available.

Young men in the center should weigh in their minds whether they are more essential to their present jobs or as firemen and lumberjacks.

The Rohwer DUTPOST

of 'eva-Earl E. Best pampered' fame cuees are was arrested recently in Los Angeles on a warrant of forgery issued by the sheriff of Cody, Wyoming. Best was a star witness for the Dies subcommittee when Rep. John Costello conducted the hearings in Los Angeles.

Best's many damning and unsubstantiated charges against the WRA and the Japaneso-Americans were refuted by Dillon S. Myer, national WRA director whon they were released by subcommittee. It was Best ver Post with a series of sonsational tales last spring against the WRA.

The arrost of Bost, a former WRA official, means the removal of another black mark from the mudsmeared record that the nisei have been subjected to during the past year. black mark against the already sullied record of the Dies committee for irresponsible attacks and for promoting race feelings. WHY STAY IN THE CENTER

Despite relocation, few young men can be seen wandering around the project. We have wondered why, but the other day, Lil Dan'l, Sports ed and B.S. were engaged in their usual recreation of cutting paper dolls when a beautiful girl in green sweater strolled in, asked a question and went out again.

All three rushed over. to the door and watched the vision of Ioveliness disappear . from sight. All three are now skeptic enl about relocation.

THE SAME OLD STORY

Typist Beth Fujimoto left for Toledo, Ohio Wednesday and brought to 28 the number of persons who have forsaken the OUTPOST staff. Beth, a sparkling personality, should be able to readjust herself to any situation that sho may encounter on the outside, we think.
